THE STATE FAIR.

The Crowd Increasing Fast and Gate Receipts Larger.

THE THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

"Kitty Van" Wins the Running Race.
Time 1.16—"Canemah" Wins the Two-Year-Old Trotting Race.

To-day was by far the most interesting day at the fair grounds. The gate receipts were much larger than yesterday and at least 10,000 people are admiring the wonders of the great State Fair. The pavilion has been badly crowded all day long and this evening.

The grand stand was well filled and a close estimate places the number at at least 4,000 people who witnessed the races. A pleasant feature of the occasion was the number of ladies present who witnessed the races. There was also quite a number of distinguished visitors present to-day.

A greater part of the premiums were awarded to-day, and below will be found a list of premiums awarded in Division "B," and "D."

PURELY PERSONAL.

—H. Giesy, of Aurora, is in the city attending the fair.

—Senator Dawson and wife are in attendance at the State Fair.

—J. W. Bachellor, of Butteville, is in the city, and around the fair grounds.

—Miss L. Peterson, one of Portland's esteemed young ladies, is in the city, visiting friends and attending the State Fair.

—Wm. Meats, of Philomath, is in the city to-day. He came to meet his brother who lately arrived here from the East.

—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene LaForest and Mrs. Barnes, of Albany, are in the city the guests of friends, while attending the State Fair.

—Mrs. Dr. Ellis, of Albany, is spending the week in the city attending the State Fair and visiting many friends. She will be joined in her visit by the Doctor who will arrive in the city to-morrow.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

—Gospel meetings will be held every evening on the fair grounds by the W. C. T. U., organization. Various ministers of the gospel from the city will be in attendance and assist in the exercises. All are welcome to come and enjoy a pleasant evening.

—Remember that Donaldson's restaurant at the fair grounds is the place to get a good meal.

—Epicurean tea, paints, oils, varnish, window glass and a fine line of general groceries at Gilbert & Patterson's.

—Stallions for sale. —"Young Scotchman," one of the best Clydesdale stallions of Oregon and Washington. Also "Black Durell," a good thoroughbred. Wm. Howard Phelps, over Capital National bank. Residence on Garden road, or E. Parker Kapus, Fair grounds.

—Remember that the Bon Ton restaurant is the place to get a good meal for twenty-five cents.

—Remember that the Pacific Cider, Vinegar, and fruit preserving Co., of Salem have two neat stands at the fair grounds where you can get a cool drink of sweet and champagne cider. Remember the place the corner stand near gate entrance.

—The accidents that have happened in the city this week have had no effect on the low prices at S. Farrar's for groceries. See their fine display of fruits. It's tempting.

—Persons having furnished rooms to let, during the week please leave name and address at the Candy Kitchen 313 Commercial street.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian church have a restaurant just west of the pavilion, where you can get a first-class meal for twenty-five cents and the money taken in goes to benefit the church. Also the Ladies aid society of the M. E. church have one near by where you can also get a first-class meal for twenty-five cents.

—For a good square meal you should go to the Bon Ton restaurant. The coffee made in their patent coffee urn is delicious and healthful. Try it.

IT WON'T BAKE BREAD.—In other words Hood's Sarsaparilla will not do impossibilities. Its proprietors tell plainly what it has done, submit proofs from sources of unquestioned reliability, and ask you frankly if you are suffering from any disease or affection caused or promoted by impure blood or low state of the system, to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The experience of others is sufficient assurance that you will not be disappointed in the result.
